About IATO

Improvement of Agriculture Training Organization (IATO) is a non-governmental, non-profit, and non-political organization that focuses on development and agriculture. Established in 2013, IATO has a history of training agriculture teachers for Agriculture High Schools, developing new curricula for Agriculture High Schools and Agriculture and Veterinary Institutes, equipping them with practical platforms, and offering agricultural, livestock, food, and nutrition. IATO's thematic focus is agricultural services, research and development, food security and livelihood (FSL), and humanitarian assistance. Through its community-based approach, IATO has built strong relationships with communities and gained their trust by partnering with INGOs and public agencies such as WUR, HELVETAS, GIZ, World Bank's Afghan Skills Development Program (ASDPH), KFW, USAID's Catalyzing Afghan Agriculture Innovation (CAAI), and Afghanaid. The organization has earned an excellent reputation among donor organizations, partner organizations, public sector organizations, government officials, and other stakeholders because of its outstanding service delivery. IATO's approach is to offer competency-based education programs to various target groups, host agriculture initiatives, and innovations, affiliate with top-ranked agriculture research hubs globally, and create numerous success stories in the field with noteworthy achievements.
